LARGEST ON RECORD.

Salt Herring Fleet Numbers
All of Fifty-three Sail.

MANY HAVE ALREADY GONE.

Several Now on the Way Home with Cargoes.

The Newfoundland salt herring fleet this year will be the largest in the history of the fishery, no less than 53 vessels having already sailed or are going, in this branch of the business alone.

The list of vessels which will comprise the fleet are as follows: Schs. Lucinda I. Lowell, Carrie W. Babson, Senator Gardner, Helen F. Whittin, Maxine Elliot, J. J. Flaherty, Lewis H. Giles, Arcadia, Bohemia, Claudia, Orinoco, Essex, Dreadnaught, Independence, Argo, Bessie M. Devine, Orpheus, Admiral Dewey, Monarch, Rival, Senator Saulsbury, Kear-sarge, Veda M. McKown, Maggie and May, Arkona, Valkyrie, S. P. Willard, Norma, Masconomo, Talisman, Aloha, Noarmahal, Mystery, Marguerite, American, A. E. Whyland, Dauntless, Centennial, Edward Trevo, Hiram Lowell, Edward S. Eveleth and steamer Alice M. Jacobs.

From Boston—Schs. George Parker, Annie M. Parker, Edna Wallace Hopper.

From Boothbay—Schs. Bertha D. Nickerson, Harry A. Nickerson and Carlton Bell.

From Bucksport—Schs. Arthur V. S. Woodruff and Landseer.

From Chatham—Sch. Nettie Franklin.

From Provincetown—Sch. Monitor and one other.

Last year's fleet numbered 35 sail and was the largest on record at that time. The first cargoes to arrive last year came November 20, schs. Norumbega and Marguerite coming in with full cargoes on that date.

At present eight vessels are on the way with cargoes and the prospect at Bay of Islands is considered fair. The demand last year was greatly in excess of any previous year and despite the fact that many of the fleet made second trips, it was claimed that the supply did not equal the demand. The season closed with high prices for the last trips.

This season, with the failure of the Ipswich herring fishery and the large demand, much depends on the success or failure of the Newfoundland fleet.
